"CHILDREN'S HOME" THANKS.

That rousing appeal of yours in behalf of the Children's Home had a magical effect upon the hearts and purses of many good people, and our donation time was rich with substantial evidence of a responsive people. Some came in the fore-noon, but from 1 o'clock until 6 our Home was thronged. Many had never visited the "little ones" before, and their expres-sions of interest and pledges of help greatly cheered our hearts, while all brought gifts the sight of which (especially "little Ruby's treasures selected from her own store") delighted the children, and made us all very grateful. The board of directors and and inmates of the Home return deep and heartfelt gratitude to all who helped make the annual donation day a season of joy and thanksgiving. NEWTON BEERS.

The revival of Enoch Arden by Mr. Newton Beers is not only marked by scenic and musical accessories worthy of Tennyson's great poem, but is also enlivened by special features in harmony with the story of the period when the old-fash-ioned sports and pastimes of Merry England were in their full flower. The beautiful drama is also presented with an unusually strong cast. Mr. Beers himself will appear in the title role. He is a recognized leading actor who has devoted months of the closest study of the poet's honest rugged sailor. He can be relied upon for a picturesque rendering of the double-sided part and for an artistic con-trast between the bluff, hearty bridegroom, sailing away full of hope and enthusiasm, and the broken-down wanderer, gladly wescoming death in sight of his old hearthstone. Miss Katherine Crego, who plays Anniel Lee, is admirably cast in the part. She has played leading parts in prominent combinations and has won commendations in difficult roles from nounced hit as the tempest-tossed heroine of this drama. TOU have no doubt found it difficult to find a satisfactory soap for office use where the consumption is considerable and expensive soaps cannot be afforded. "Cheap" soaps are used, but from their greasy, acrid and irritating character, are very unsatisfactory. No such experience can occur with the IVORY SOAP, for it is 99100 pure, and no one is so poor but can afford "the IVORY." Send your office-boy for a cake and try it.

A WORD OF WARNING.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'Ivory';" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.

ABOUT THURSDAY

It will be Thursday morning when we will give you a surprise that for its originality and uniqueness will surpass anything ever introduced into Wichita. Never mind what it is, for if we told you it wouldn't be a surprise, so just watch this column and Thursday morning read about what we propose to do. At the present time pay strictest attention to what we say now and profit by what you learn. And to commence the subject, we will just mention our new shipment, just received, of the most superb lot of high class Parisian novelty suits. These are made up with the very last invented combinations of colors. The embroideries in these suits are simply superior in taste and style to any ever before seen here and we feel confident that all who see them will so testify. Our black goods stock is unsurpassed in the state in its excellent quality and our daily increasing sales testify to the popularity of this department. Our silk department was never so complete as at present and never before was such elegant Peau de Soie sold at only $1.00 per yard. This silk is well worth $1.25 at least and we have no hesitancy in saying that it cannot be beat anywhere. Our 54 inch flannels at 50 cents per yard must be seen to be appreciated, and as they are excellent value at 75 cents they will go like wild fire. Our one dollar flannels are also 54 In the case of William Neeley vs Ro-elle et al., a motion was made for a new deep cut. These flannels have a broadcloth finish and are as handsome as this fabric. French flannels in Persian designs are Kassell.
